

2009 National Tour Points Series – “The Drive for the Championship”

Presented by Woodchuck Cider

The 2009 PDGA National Tour will feature the top players in the Men’s and Women’s Open divisions as they compete in the second annual “Drive for the Championship”. The “Drive” will consist of all ten National Tour events and three PDGA Majors. Players will accumulate points throughout the season as they compete for trophies, cash bonuses and the title of 2009 PDGA Tour Champion.

The 2009 National Tour will consist of ten events held across the country starting with the Memorial in Scottsdale, Arizona on March 4-7 and ending with the Vibram Open at Maple Hill in Leicester, Massachusetts on August 14-16. Points will be awarded based on order of finish in an individual event per the table below, with the results of their top four finishes used to qualify for the Drive for the Championship, presented by Woodchuck Cider.

Place	Points	Place	Points	Place	Points	Place	Points
1	100	11	72	21	52	31	33

10	74	20	54	30	34	40	24

The Drive for the Championship will consist of the PDGA Pro Disc Golf World Championships and the United State Disc Golf Championships (or) United States Women’s Disc Golf Championships. Series points from the four preliminary events are carried forward and added to the two Drive events to determine NT cash bonuses and the title of 2009 PDGA Tour Champion.

With the exception of the Men’s And Women’s Series Champions, the bonuses for all ties will be divided evenly. Point standings will be displayed in whole numbers, with fractions maintained for the purposes of tiebreaking.

In the case of a tie for the Tour Championship the following tie-breakers will be utilized:

- 1) Head-to-head record at the World and US Championships.
- 2) Head-to-head record in National Tour events.
- 3) Place of finish at the World Championships
- 4) Place of finish at the applicable US Championship.
- 5) Sum of points at all National Tour events
