

2016 PDGA Professional Disc Golf World Championship Registration Schedule (Subject to Change)

NOTE: In all cases a registrant must be a current 2016 member and is a certified official through August 13th, 2016 in order to register.

Friday, April 1 – Pro Worlds invite list is posted on pdga.com

Friday, April 8 – Pro Worlds invitations are emailed to invitees. Invitation packets are sent via USPS only to those current invitees without an email address.

Friday, April 22 – Registration opens for two weeks to International (Non-North American) Invitees ONLY for the reserved International spots (approx. 20-25%) in the division(s) for which they were invited.

Friday, May 6 – Registration opens for one week to Canadian Invitees ONLY for reserved Canadian spots (approx. 2-3%) and any leftover International spots in the division(s) for which they were invited.

Friday, May 13 – Registration opens for four weeks to all Pro invitees for the divisions for which they were invited. If a division fills, then a waitlist is started only for invitees of the division in the order they are received.

Note: One spot in each division is held for the 2015 World Champion to register during this period ONLY. If not registered by June 10th, the spots are released.

Friday, June 10 - Registration opens for two weeks to Pro invitees for other divisions they qualify for (example: A player invited only for MPM may now register for MPO.) Any waitlists for filled divisions are continued with invited players in the order they are received.

Friday, June 24 – Registration opens for two weeks to non-invitees who are classed as Pros. Waitlists for filled divisions are continued with any qualified Pro registrants in the order they are received.

Friday, July 8 - Registration opens for one week to Amateurs who meet a minimum ratings requirement.
