

2020 PDGA Amateur Worlds Registration Schedule (Subject to Change)

Note: In all cases a registrant must be both a current 2020 amateur member and a certified official through August 1, 2020 in order to register.

Note: All registration tiers open at 12:01 AM Eastern on the date indicated (Early Friday Morning.)

Friday, March 27 – Amateur Worlds invite list is posted on pdga.com

Friday, April 10 – Amateur Worlds invitations are emailed to invitees. Invitation packets are sent via USPS only to those current US invitees without an email address.

Friday, May 22 – Registration opens for one week to International (Non-North American) Invitees ONLY for the reserved International spots (% based on tour participants) in the division(s) for which they were invited.

Friday, May 29 – Registration opens for one week to Canadian Invitees ONLY for reserved Canadian spots (% based on tour participants) and any leftover International spots in the division(s) for which they were invited.

Friday, June 5 – Registration opens for three weeks to all invitees only for the division(s) for which they were invited. If a division fills then a waitlist is started only for invitees of the division in the order they are received. Note: During this period spots are held in each division for the 2019 World Champions to register -- during this period ONLY. If not registered by June 26, those spots are released.

Friday, June 26 – Registration opens for one week to invitees to register for any other division(s) they are eligible for if spots are available (example: players only invited for MA40 can now register for MA1.) Any waitlists for filled divisions are continued with invited players in the order they are received.

Friday, July 3 – Open Registration for two weeks for all Amateur PDGA members for any division(s) they are eligible for. Waitlists for filled divisions are continued with any qualified amateur registrants.

Friday, July 17 – Registration closes, waitlists are closed.

Monday, July 20 – Player Pools are posted.

Friday, July 24 – Divisional Fields and Player Pools are Final. Any players still on the waitlist are refunded. Dropped spaces after this date will NOT be filled.

Note: PDGA World Championships registration is handled by the PDGA Office. Please direct any registration related questions to the PDGA Tour Manager, NOT the Worlds Tournament Director.
